

Diversitas – Coaching, Leadership & Training Services

Welcome, thank you for stopping by my site. After many years operating as a sole Career & Executive Coach and as a Facilitator for Leadership Development and Type (MBTI, The Majors) programs, I have merged my business with Diversitas where we work together as a part of a truly modern collaborative team.

At Diversitas we focus on diversity and wellbeing in leadership and career development. We have offerings for both individuals and organisations which are detailed on the Diversitas site.

Should you be seeking support in any these areas, please give us a call or send us an email to discuss how we may be able to best assist you.
