You may be new to Personality Type and interested to learn more about the theory and your own type. Or perhaps you did some Type work years ago and are interested in refreshing your knowledge and building upon your understanding of your own type and the other 15 personality types. Type is used successfully across many areas including our careers. Whether it be to change careers, improve communication skills, move into a more senior position and developing leadership potential.

Type, Your Career & Outcomes

If you are interested in developing yourself personally and your career professionally knowing your Type preferences is very powerful. Clients find a greater sense of clarity about who they are and how they experience the world. They ultimately achieve greater self-confidence in who they are, their gifts and how they can experience a more satisfying career.

There are two Type tools that I use both based on the same theory and result in the 16-personality type outcome i.e. ISTJ. These are The Majors and The Myers-Briggs Personality Type Indicator (MBTI®). Both are equally wonderful Type tools.

Type Expertise

As an accredited trainer & coach in Type (Myers-Briggs Type Indicator® \(MBTI® ®\) or The Majors) I have successfully used the Type tools in Career & Executive Coaching and Leadership Development with individual clients for many years.

Type is a highly regarded tool that is used to gain insights into our innate personal preferences. It has stood the test of time (100 years initially developed by Carl Gustav Jung) and is utilised across the world for a variety of purposes including career development, team building, stress management, executive coaching, conflict resolution, and leadership development.

The Majors

Option One – pti Elements

If you are new to Personality Type, this is a terrific tool to learn about Type Theory and your Personality Type for personal development and ultimately to gain more confidence in who you are and how you experience the world. The session/s will also help you gain new career insights.

Cost: $450 (plus GST) includes 1 1/2-hour coaching session (face to face or virtual) with a qualified Type Coach, online assessment, 9-page report & Type book and follow up call to check in a week after the session and answer any queries.

Option Two – pt-Elements

If you are familiar with your Personality Type, from undertaking a Type assessment in the past 5-10 years and know your type, the pt-elements will help you take a deep dive into your type preferences. It will focus on your preference sub-scales around your communication style, decision making, approach to managing change and managing conflict. In addition, you will gain insights around your management and leadership and your career.
